

Peter Sulzle

Peter Sulzle

Across

1. Early spring food for a bear
3. Urban versions can be dangerous to dogs and humans.
5. Largest of the bears in BC
6. The largest member of the deer family.
9. Keep this clean so as not to attract bears
15. A young deer
17. A masked hunter of grubs, eggs, and aquatic animals.
18. A type of fence that keeps bears out
20. A term for a male bear.
22. A female moose
23. These attract bears, coyote and deer as well.
24. A plant eater
25. Sweet to have but can attract bears
27. A male moose
28. A meat eater
29. Can attract wildlife to your property
30. Pick these before they attract bears
31. This member of the dog family is at home in urban settings.
32. Doing this while walking helps to warn bears of your approach

Down

2. The bear's greatest sense
4. Name for animals that hunt other animals
7. Will eat both plants and animals
8. Wapiti is another name for this animal
10. A large footed cat.
11. A first fruit of the season that bears also love
12. Number one bear attractant in BC
13. The largest of BC's cats.
14. Helps to keep deer away from your plants
16. The fore-runner of today's domestic dog.
19. Need an electrified coop to keep predators away
21. Most effective at deterring a bear attack.
26. The smallest of our three wild cats.
27. A large aquatic rodent
28. Can attract rats and bears if not working properly.
31. A young moose